

Pro Collagen Body Butter 200 ml

Did you know that...?

- 1 The naturalness index of the new body butter is as much as 91.4%. Collagen butter contains more natural ingredients which are usually more gentle for the skin than synthetic ones, which means the butter is more gentle for your skin.
- 2 The rich composition of Pro Collagen Body Butter 200 ml is a combination of five types of hyaluronic acid with collagen, a complex of 8 plant extracts, acerola extract, avocado oil, shea butter, cocoa butter, betaine and urea enclosed in the HyalFive 24/7 Nutri-Form™ formula. The specially selected, rich composition provides such benefits as proper, intense skin hydration and firming.
- 3 The composition has been enriched by such ingredients as:
  - a complex of 5 types of hyaluronic acid – types of hyaluronic acid differ in particle structure and size, this way contributing to hydrating both the deep and the superficial skin layers;
  - a formula of 8 plant extracts sourced from Asiatic pennywort, common horsetail, witch hazel, lemon, hop, pine, rosemary and sage;
  - a composition of 2 types of fish collagen with high bioavailability which makes the collagen better absorbed by the skin.
- 4 A selected composition of additional ingredients: shea butter, cocoa butter and avocado oil contributes to the formation of a protective layer on the skin. Meanwhile, urea found in the formula ensures proper skin hydration.
- 5 Pro Collagen Body Butter 200 ml firmes, hydrates, elasticises, improves skin tautness, smoothens the skin, soothes the irritation caused by excessive skin dryness, forms a protective layer on the epidermis' surface.
- 6 The body butter has fresh fragrance notes, which are sweet, citrus, mint and woody at the same time.
- 7 Easy and convenient butter application thanks to the handy container and additional protection in the form of a protective seal. It protects the butter from air and moisture, providing safety of use. The seal is also a guarantee that the product hasn't been used yet.
- 8 The ingredients of the body butter are selected to work together, and their synergistic action contributes to improving the condition of the skin.
- 9 Pro Collagen Body Butter 200 ml goes well with other DUOLIFE products, especially cosmetics from the Pro Collagen line containing collagen and the improved Pro Keratin Hair Complex cosmetics line.
